*CALL TO WORSHIP

Pastor Rob

L. O come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

P. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!

L. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

P. O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Pastor David

Gracious and loving God, forgive us when turn a deaf ear to your call in Jesus Christ and to the cries of those in the world who need your love and our help. Forgive us when we treat discipleship as a yoke of oppression rather than a blessing and gift for leading a faithful life as your people. O Lord, forgive our sin. Help us to know and love you with all that we are, that we may love our neighbors as we love ourselves. We pray for the strength of your Holy Spirit to equip us for our calling as followers of Jesus Christ, in whom we have our hope and put our trust.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

The apostle Paul also wrote to the believers in Galatia, “For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” Hear and believe the good news: In Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven.
Thanks be to God.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

I Corinthians 11:17-26

In the following directives I have no praise for you, for your meetings do more harm than good. <sup>18</sup> In the first place, I hear that when you come together as a church, there are divisions among you, and to some extent I believe it. <sup>19</sup> No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you have God’s approval. <sup>20</sup> So then, when you come together, it is not the Lord’s Supper you eat, <sup>21</sup> for when you are eating, some of you go ahead with your own private suppers. As a result, one person remains hungry and another gets drunk. <sup>22</sup> Don’t you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God by humiliating those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? Certainly not in this matter! <sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, <sup>24</sup> and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.” <sup>25</sup> In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.” <sup>26</sup> For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

THE LORD’S SUPPER

INVITATION TO THE LORD’S TABLE

GREAT THANKSGIVING

L: The Lord be with you.

P: And also, with you.

L: Lift up your hearts.

P: We lift them to the Lord.

L: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

P: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise, eternal God, creator and ruler of the universe. At your word, the earth was made and spun on its course among the planets. Your hand formed us from the dust of the earth and set us among all your creatures to love and serve you.

When we were unfaithful to you, you kept faith with us; your love remained steadfast.

When we were slaves in Egypt, you broke the bonds of our oppression, brought us through the sea to freedom, and made a covenant to be our God. By a pillar of fire, you led us through the desert to a land flowing with milk and honey and set before us the way of life.

You spoke of love and justice in the prophets, and in the Word made flesh, you lived among us, manifesting your glory. He died that we might live and is risen to raise us to new life. Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with angels and archangels and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, whom you sent to save us. He came with healing in his touch and was wounded for our sins. He came with mercy in his voice and was mocked as one despised. He came with peace in his heart and met with violence and death. By your power, he broke free from the prison of the tomb, and at his command, the gates of hell were opened. The one who was dead now lives. The one who humbled himself is raised to rule over all creation, the Lamb upon the throne. The one ascended on high is with us always, as he promised.

We give you thanks that the Lord Jesus, on the night before he died, took bread, and after giving thanks to you, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat. This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, he took the cup, saying: This cup is the new covenant sealed in my blood, shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me.

Remembering all your mighty and merciful acts, we take this bread and this fruit of the vine from the gifts you have given us and celebrate with joy the redemption won for us in Jesus Christ. Accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving as a living and holy offering of ourselves, that our lives may proclaim the One crucified and risen. We make our prayer in His name.

Monday Night Bible Study

Monday Bible Study will resume in August. We will begin a study on the Letter to the Hebrews. So put it on your schedule to be with us August 3, 2026 @ 6 PM as we begin this exciting discussion.

Yoga Class!

Show your faith in yourself and join us for this gentle yoga class designed to encourage faithful stewardship of the whole person—body, mind, and soul. In the Reformed tradition, we confess that our bodies are not incidental to our discipleship; they are gifts from our Creator, entrusted to us for His glory. As we learn to breathe deeply, move wisely, stretch patiently, and strengthen steadily, we also make room for a calmer mind, a more disciplined spirit, and a heart better prepared for prayer, worship, and daily obedience. A healthy body will support a healthy mind, and a settled mind will help us walk with greater attentiveness, gratitude, and perseverance in faith. This class is open to all ability levels—beginners, chair-users, experienced participants, and anyone simply seeking a welcoming place to move with purpose and fellowship. Come as you are, move at your own pace, and be encouraged as we pursue balance, wellness, and godliness together, remembering that “physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things” (1 Timothy 4:8).

Classes are $15 each.

Tuesday Morning Men's Prayer Breakfast

Men of the church, Tuesday morning is not merely an early meeting with eggs—it is a weekly invitation to come as you are and be received as brothers in Christ. Join us every Tuesday at 7 AM in Miss Bettie Richards Hall at LHPC for the Men's Prayer Breakfast, where the coffee is strong, the food is real, and no one will judge you for calling a biscuit a "means of grace" before 8 AM. We gather because men need a place to belong: a table where they are welcomed, a meal where they are fed, a brotherhood where they are known, and a time of prayer where our hearts are lifted again to the Lord who sustains us. In God's good providence, He often strengthens His people through ordinary means—shared bread, honest conversation, faithful prayer, and the encouragement of fellow saints. So bring your appetite, your burdens, your laughter, and your need for grace. You will be fed literally, encouraged spiritually, and reminded that in Christ, no man has to walk alone. Come hungry for breakfast, fellowship, and a Word-shaped hope that steadies us for the day ahead.

When: Tuesdays at 7:00 AM

Where: Miss Bettie Richards Hall (20 Meeting Lane, liberty Hill)

The Lakeside interdenominational worship ministry began on a Sunday morning in July 1977 with 12 attendees in the Deal's Marina parking lot on Lake Wateree, sponsored by Liberty Hill Presbyterian Church. In the nearly 5 decades since, this community ministry has attracted scores of worshippers from numerous local churches each Sunday from June through September. In a sanctuary made by God's own hand, this welcoming service outside the walls of a conventional church building provides an opportunity for fellowship in which the presence of God can be known. In 1995, LHPC's leadership, under the direction of pastor Gene Rollins, dreamt of Wateree Lake Ministries becoming its own 501(c) (3) with its own lakeside property on which to hold worship services. This vision became a reality in 2004, when two lots were donated for this purpose for the glory of God. In true interdenominational spirit, the grounds hold elements from different denominations, such as Stations of the Cross and a walking prayer labyrinth, in addition to the mounted wall cross and standing Yard cross. These grounds were dedicated debt-free for community use and to the glory of our most high God.
