*CALL TO WORSHIP (Based on Jude 24–25)

One: Come, people of God. You are loved in Christ and kept by the Holy Spirit.

Many: We come to worship the One who can keep us from stumbling.

One: Come, not trusting in yourselves, but in the grace of our Lord.

Many: We come with joy, forgiven and held by God's mercy.

One: To the only God, our Savior through Jesus Christ, be glory, majesty, power, and authority.

Many: Before all time, now, and forever. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Romans 11, Isaiah 56)

Gracious and merciful God, we confess that we are slow to understand Your truth and quick to rely on our own wisdom. Though You have shown us grace in Jesus Christ, we often live as though we must earn Your favor or preserve ourselves by our own strength. Forgive us for our pride, our unbelief, and our resistance to Your Word. Open our minds by Your Spirit, that we may know the riches of Your grace more fully. Teach us to rest in Christ alone, who keeps us from stumbling and presents us blameless before Your presence with great joy. Lord, have mercy on us. Renew our hearts, deepen our understanding, and lead us again into the freedom of Your grace. Now silently we offer our personal and private confessions...

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (Isaiah 43:1)

Hear the good news: In Jesus Christ, forgiveness is given by grace. To all who trust in Him, your sins are forgiven in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Hallelujah! Amen!

PASTORAL PRAYER AND LORD’S PRAYER

...Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Jude 1:5-16

Now I desire to remind you, though you are fully informed, once and for all, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶ And the angels who did not keep their own position but deserted their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains in deepest darkness for the judgment of the great day. ⁷ Likewise, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which, in the same manner as they, indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural lust, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

⁸ Yet in the same way these dreamers also defile the flesh, reject authority, and slander the glorious ones. ⁹ But when the archangel Michael disputed with the devil and argued about the body of Moses, he did not dare to bring a condemnation of slander against him but said, “The Lord rebuke you!” ¹⁰ But these people slander whatever they do not understand, and they are destroyed by those things that, like irrational animals, they know by instinct. ¹¹ Woe to them! For they go the way of Cain and abandon themselves to Balaam’s error for the sake of gain and perish in Korah’s rebellion. ¹² These are blots on your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, feeding themselves. They are waterless clouds carried along by the winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, uprooted; ¹³ wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the deepest darkness has been reserved forever.

¹⁴ It was also about these that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, “See, the Lord is coming with ten thousands of his holy ones, ¹⁵ to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all the deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” ¹⁶ These are grumblers and malcontents; they indulge their lusts; their mouths utter bombastic nonsense, flattering people to their own advantage.

Share God's Love—Help Stock the CCM Pantry

Jesus teaches us, "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31), and Scripture reminds us, "God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:7). We can live out both truths by helping stock the CCM pantry. As grocery and household costs continue to rise, many families in Kershaw County need a helping hand. On your next trip to the store, please consider adding one extra nonperishable food item to your cart for CCM. Every gift, large or small, shares Christ's love, offers hope during a difficult season, and reminds our neighbors that they do not walk alone.

Most-needed items include:

- Peanut Butter
- Jelly
- Baked Beans
- Box Pasta
- Canned Chicken
- Box Cereal
- Canned Black Beans
- Canned Vegetables
- Canned Collard Greens
- Canned Potatoes

Help comfort local shelter pets! If you have gently used towels or blankets, please bring them to the Lakeside, and we will get them to the Kershaw County Humane Society. Food donations for puppies, kittens, dogs, and cats are also welcome. Please check the Humane Society wish list for current needs.

The Lakeside interdenominational worship ministry began on a Sunday morning in July 1977 with 12 attendees in the Deal's Marina parking lot on Lake Wateree, sponsored by Liberty Hill Presbyterian Church. In the nearly 5 decades since, this community ministry has attracted scores of worshippers from numerous local churches each Sunday from June through September. In a sanctuary made by God's own hand, this welcoming service outside the walls of a conventional church building provides an opportunity for fellowship in which the presence of God can be known. In 1995, LHPC's leadership, under the direction of pastor Gene Rollins, dreamt of Wateree Lake Ministries becoming its own 501(c) (3) with its own lakeside property on which to hold worship services. This vision became a reality in 2004, when two lots were donated for this purpose for the glory of God. In true interdenominational spirit, the grounds hold elements from different denominations, such as Stations of the Cross and a walking prayer labyrinth, in addition to the mounted wall cross and standing Yard cross. These grounds were dedicated debt-free for community use and to the glory of our most high God.
