NOISY OFFERING

PRELUDE — "Friends" — Carol Ghent

*GATHERING HYMN — "Let Us Break Bread Together" — Purple 525

*CALL TO WORSHIP — Pastor Rob

L. O send out your light and your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling.

P. Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy, and I will praise you with the harp, O God, my God.

L. Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me?

P. Hope in God, for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION — Pastor David

Holy God, we know that we may rest in the promises of our baptism — we know that your grace rests on us this day and every day. Never for a moment are we outside of your constant care. And yet, things happen. Life tumbles in and your promises seem distant. We retreat into fear. We worry about what we cannot change. We forget why we do what we do in the name of our arisen Lord. Forgive our anxious fears. Lead us to be the people of God that you created us to be, disciples of Jesus Christ, in whose name we offer our prayers …

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (Ephesians 2:8-10)

By grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing: it is the gift of God — not the result of works, so that no one might boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life. Believe the promise of the Gospel.

Thanks be to God.

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING (Adapted from Book of Common Worship)

L. The Lord be with you.
P. And also with you.
L. Lift up your hearts.
P. We lift them to the Lord.
L. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
P. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy and gracious God, you spoke creation into being and called it good. You scattered stars across the heavens, gathered seas into their places, raised mountains from the earth and filled field and forest with life. You formed us from the dust and breathed your own breath into us, creating us in your image and calling us to tend what you have made and care for one another.

When we have forgotten that we belong to you and to one another, you have not forgotten us. You have met your people in wilderness places, spoken through prophets and poets, and called us again and again from fear toward faith, from captivity toward freedom, from violence toward your way of peace. Your mercy has been more persistent than our wandering; your love, more enduring than our failures.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with choirs of angels and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy God, blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. In Jesus you came among us, sharing the fullness and vulnerability of human life. He welcomed children, touched those others would not touch, ate with those pushed to the margins, challenged those who hoarded power, and proclaimed good news to people longing to be free. He fed the hungry, healed the suffering, forgave sinners and gathered around tables those the world had divided. When confronted by hatred and violence, Jesus remained faithful to your way of love. Even death could not silence the life you had given him. You raised him from the grave, revealing that cruelty does not have the final word, that no tomb can contain your love, and that new life is possible even when hope seems lost.

With joy we remember this good news, and we celebrate the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ through this bread and this cup. Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Pastor David

Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine. Make this bread we break and this cup we share the communion of the body and blood of Christ.

By your Spirit, gather us into one body — not because we are alike, but because we belong to Christ and therefore belong to one another. Breathe courage into us when we are afraid, wisdom into us when the way is unclear, compassion into us when we are tempted to turn away, and holy imagination into us when we cannot yet see how your new creation might come to be.As this bread is Christ's body for us, send us to be Christ's body in the world: hands that heal, voices that speak truth, hearts that make room, feet willing to walk the hard road toward justice and peace.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, eternal God, now and forever. Amen.

Liberty Hill Presbyterian Church: A Legacy of Faith

In the early nineteenth century, several people of Liberty Hill attended church services in the Old School House or at Tolerant Chapel and Beaver Creek Presbyterian Church. In 1851, several faithful organized Liberty Hill Presbyterian Church with a membership of 10 men and 16 women. The land on which the church was built was a gift from Joseph Cunningham. The first official service was held on the last Sunday in October.

The First Church Building was erected in 1852 and faced the cemetery. The present building was built in 1880 using many timbers from the original structure. Mr. John Brown gave the bell in the belfry to the church; it was used with the original building but stood in a small belfry by the cemetery gates.

The Sanctuary Organ, a single-manual instrument with six stops, was built in 1820 under the name James Jackson, New York. Originally, it was given to Bethesda Presbyterian Church in Camden, SC. LHPC purchased the organ from Bethesda in 1907 for $200. It was fully restored by J. Allen Farmer, Inc., organ builders in Winston-Salem, NC.
