P. Let us give thanks to God and bless God's holy name.
L. For the Lord is good; God's steadfast love endures forever!
P. God's faithfulness is for all generations! Come, let us worship God!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION — Pastor David

Almighty God, you are God of all creation, from beginning to end. All authority and power to direct the ways of the world are in your hands. Yet you saw fit to outfit humankind with the same freedom to choose and act that you have. We thank you for this power, but confess we often misuse it. We choose to do the things we know not to do. We take advantage, even as we sense our conscience pulling us away from what is wrong. We deny our own agency and claim "it is what it is" about the sufferings and injustices of the world when we should be working to make a change. Forgive us, Merciful God, of our shallowness of heart and slowness of action. Fill us with the Spirit of Christ, the advocate for the least among us, that we be empowered to do justly, love kindness and walk humbly before you. Through our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (adapted from Romans 8:33-34)

Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ who died, or rather, who was raised, who is also at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. So believe the Good News:

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven! Amen

As Jesus Christ is God's assurance of the forgiveness of all our sins, so in the same way and with the same seriousness is he also God's mighty claim upon our whole life.Through him befalls us a joyful deliverance from the godless fetters of this world for a free, grateful service to his creatures. Therefore we reject the false doctrine, as though there were areas of our life in which we would not belong to Jesus Christ, but to other lords —areas in which we would not need justification and sanctification through him. Amen

Joke for the week: (The Thanksgiving Prayer)

A family sat down to their Thanksgiving feast, and the father asked their six-year-old son to say the blessing.

The boy bowed his head and began: "Lord, I thank you for the turkey, the stuffing, the mashed potatoes, and the green beans." He paused, peeked up at the dessert counter, and added, "And Lord, if you give me strength to finish my vegetables, I'll thank you for the pumpkin pie later!"

Liberty Hill Presbyterian Church: A Legacy of Faith

In the early nineteenth century, several people of Liberty Hill attended church services in the Old School House or at Tolerant Chapel and Beaver Creek Presbyterian Church. In 1851, several faithful organized Liberty Hill Presbyterian Church with a membership of 10 men and 16 women. The land on which the church was built was a gift from Joseph Cunningham. The first official service was held on the last Sunday in October.

The First Church Building was erected in 1852 and faced the cemetery. The present building was built in 1880 using many timbers from the original structure. Mr. John Brown gave the bell in the belfry to the church; it was used with the original building but stood in a small belfry by the cemetery gates.

The Sanctuary Organ, a single-manual instrument with six stops, was built in 1820 under the name James Jackson, New York. Originally, it was given to Bethesda Presbyterian Church in Camden, SC. LHPC purchased the organ from Bethesda in 1907 for $200. It was fully restored by J. Allen Farmer, Inc., organ builders in Winston-Salem, NC.
